Biographical Sketch

Staff Sergeant Ben Borger is an Airborne Infantryman serving his fourth year on the team as a Demonstration Parachutist with the Black Demonstration Team.

After joining the Army in 2002 he has done many things to gain distinction by earning his combat infantry badge, expert infantry badge, airborne qualification, and an air assault badge. In 2004-2005 Borger deployed to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Since making the Team in 2005 Sergeant Borger has mastered many aspects of the team to include Narration, wingsuits, Canopy Relative Work and Target Accuracy which he now passes on to his Team mates.

After learning to skydive he has made over 1,950 freefall parachute jumps and five static line jumps.

In his free time he enjoys playing hockey, working out, jet skiing snowboarding and flying wingsuits.
