Biographical Sketch

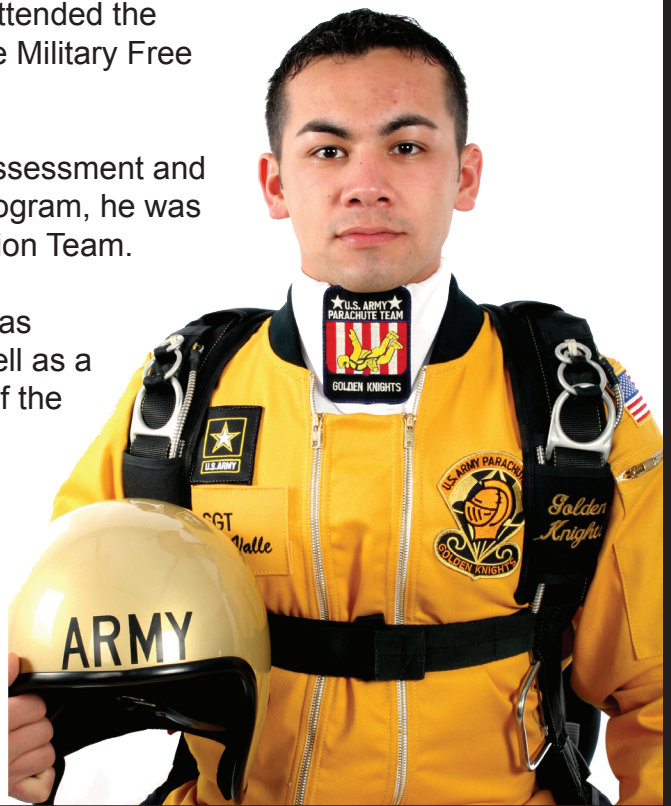

Staff Sergeant Brandon Valle is an Airborne Infantryman serving as a demonstrator on the Black Demonstration Team. This is his third year on the team.

Valle enlisted into the Army in 2003 and following his initial entry training he was sent to the Long Range Surveillance Detachment of the 82nd Airborne Division on Ft Bragg, North Carolina where he deployed to Iraq. He has attended the Recon and Surveillance leaders course and the Military Free Fall school.

In October 2006, Valle attended the rigorous Assessment and Selection Program. Upon completion of the program, he was knighted and assigned to the Gold Demonstration Team.

Prior to making the Army Parachute Team he has earned his Combat Infantryman's Badge; as well as a number of medals from his service in support of the Global war on Terrorism.

In his own time, Valle has also completed over 700 freefall jumps, but in addition to skydiving, he also enjoys 4 wheeling and shooting pistols.
