COPPER RANGE RAILROAD

BOSCH BREWING COMPANY

40' Composite Refrigeration Car

In 1874 Joseph Bosch erected a building in Lake Linden, Michigan and started brewing operations as the Torch Lake Brewery. In 1874 the company was reorganized as the Bosch Brewing Company. In 1899 the company bought the Union Brewery holding which included the Houghton site. By the turn of the century the Bosch Brewing Company had brewing facilities in Lake Linden and Houghton, as well as storehouses and branches in Calumet, Laurium, Hancock, Eagle Harbor and Ishpeming.
